

Define the terms, and answer the prompts below. The answers to the prompts will help you with your test on the novel. You will have one test on the novel, incorporating vocabulary, reading comprehension, and essay response.

Term/Part of Speech	Definition cacophony
visage
olfactory
ire
ardor
quandary
chagrined
deviant
confluence
doffed
cordoned
propriety
belied

marring
iniquity
paradigm
futile
tenacious
vestige
Veracity

Thematic response (1): Based on The Shack, does suffering make people draw closer to God or cause them to distance themselves from Him?

(2) Does Young's experience differ from a Biblical perspective of God? If so, what in the text is strikingly different? If not, how is the representation similar?